Notice Board

Although our April gig was a week later than normal, and the winter weather arrived, another great night of jazz was enjoyed by those that did turn up, to listen and dance to the Lightning Jazz Band. Paul Ingle, Ken Collins & Jason Downes on the front line, with Peter Hopper, Dan Gordon & Ron Hayden backing them up, certainly puts them high on the list of entertainment plus. Check out our website for the photo's

UNDER 25'S JAZZ WORKSHOP
16th March to 15th June 2019

Would you like to broaden your ability to improvise? Would you like to learn how to improvise on your instrument and create your own music? If you have answered "Yes" to these questions, you might like to consider learning jazz improvisation on a Saturday afternoon from 1 – 4pm at the Australian Jazz Museum, 15 Mountain Hwy, Wantirna 3152.

The cost of the Course is: $60 for 12 weeks of tuition and Presentation Day 15th June, plus $25 to join the Australian Jazz Museum which provides the member with a 12 month subscription to the AJazz magazine, access to the Museum (particularly beneficial to the student who might be studying graduate or postgraduate Australian jazz) and facilities to rehearse in outside of the Saturday rehearsals.

If you are interested in pursuing this experience, please contact: Marina Pollard (9781 4972) or mpollard@ajm.org.au (Convenor).

COMPLAINTS DEPARTMENT

Bruce was a young man employed by a large multinational company, he worked very long hours in the hope that one day he would be rewarded with a senior management position, unfortunately it didn't take long before his wife decided that as he was not at home very often she would overcome her loneliness with another man. Feeling quite dejected at the break up of this marriage, he no longer felt the need to pursue a high income profession, and started to look around for a more simple life style.

He eventually thought that becoming a monk would be the best way to go. So packing a bag he set off to Tibet in search of the Dalai Lama. On reaching the Temple high in the mountains he was met at the gates by the 2nd in command.

This monk explain to Bruce, that he must first prove himself before any training could be contemplated. Full of enthusiasm Bruce agreed to do what ever is necessary to fill the requirements, The monk then explained to him that he must go out into the fields and farm a plot of land to supply vegetables to all in the temple and that he would not converse with anyone for 3 months. With that Bruce traded this city clothes for some robes and a blanket and set off. After 3 months he was called back to front his peer.

Bruce was told that he was doing well and was allowed to speak just 2 words, "so choose wisely." He thought for a moment and then said "MORE BLANKETS." With that he was given more blankets and sent back to his plot for 6 months. Again after the 6 months passed bruce was back to see the TIC. and was told "you are doing very well" "now think about your 2 words." With careful though Bruce said "MORE FOOD". More food in his sack, away he went, but this time it would be 12 months be he would be back. Time went a lot slower, and the work got harder, so on his return after the 12 months of thinking about what 2 words he could say, and before the monk could ask him, Bruce yelled out "I QUIT". With that he herd the Dalai Lama in the next room say "Thank god for that, he has done nothing but complain since he got here."
